

Pencil Sea Urchin

GROUP/PHYLUM: Echinoderm

COLOR: Black - Brown - Orange

MOVEMENT: Spines can move in any direction

TEXTURE: Hard - Spiny

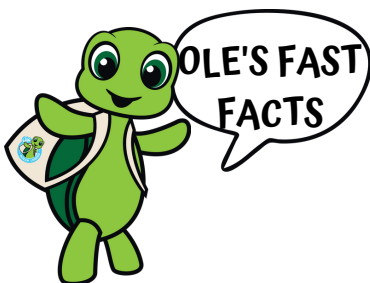

SHAPE: Round - Spiky

HOW IT EATS: Moves over food - has mouth underneath with 5 large stabbing teeth which all stab at food making it into a pulp which it sucks up

WHAT IT EATS: Dead fish - algae - sponges

DEFENCE: Spines for protection it. Able to wedge itself between rocks to hide from fish

JOB: Cleaning the ocean floor

Urine does not help if you are stung by a sea urchin!